Where to Find Videos

You can find videos using library databases.

Databases are large digital collections of information – in this case, videos. These are often paid for by libraries, so access is restricted to library users.

Find Videos from Alexander Street

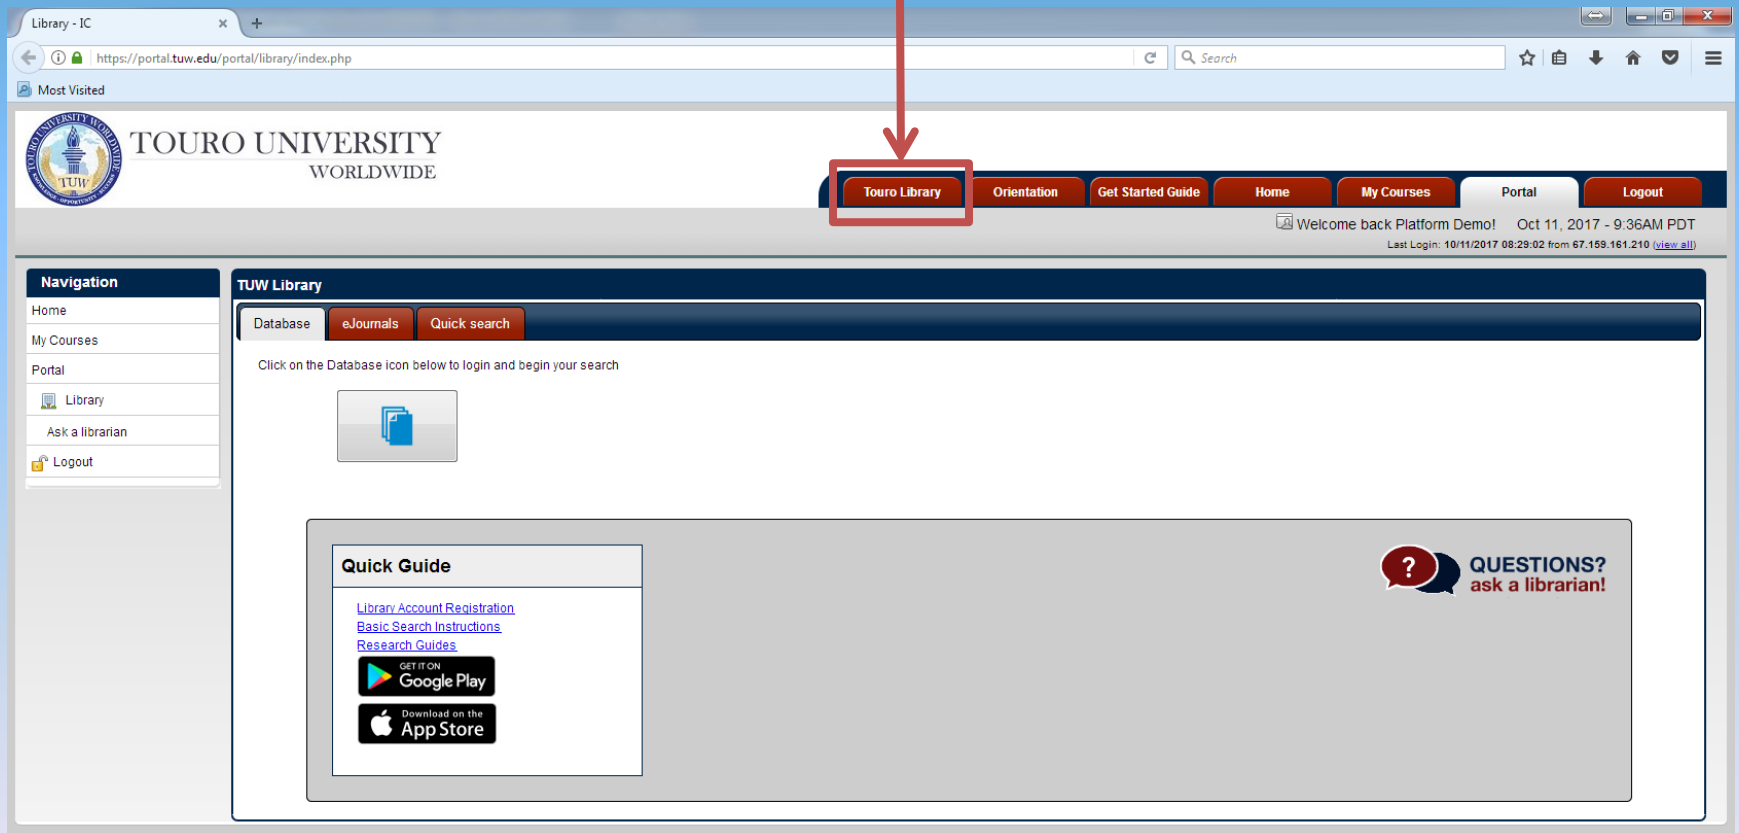

Let's look at how to find materials from Alexander Street.

This database contains videos in the Health Science and Psychology & Counseling disciplines.

It is available to Touro students through the Touro Library tab in Integrated Campus (IC).

Click on the Touro Library tab in Integrated Campus (IC)

The screenshot shows the Touro University Worldwide Integrated Campus (IC) library page. The browser address bar displays <https://portal.tuw.edu/portal/library/index.php>. The page header features the Touro University Worldwide logo and a navigation bar with tabs: Touro Library, Orientation, Get Started Guide, Home, My Courses, Portal, and Logout. A red arrow points to the Touro Library tab. Below the navigation bar, a welcome message reads: "Welcome back Platform Demo! Oct 11, 2017 - 9:36AM PDT. Last Login: 10/11/2017 08:29:02 from 67.159.161.210 (view all)". The main content area is titled "TOW Library" and includes a "Database" icon, "eJournals", and "Quick search" buttons. A message states: "Click on the Database icon below to login and begin your search". Below this is a "Quick Guide" section with links for "Library Account Registration", "Basic Search Instructions", and "Research Guides". It also features "GET IT ON Google Play" and "Download on the App Store" buttons. A "QUESTIONS? ask a librarian!" button is located in the bottom right corner of the main content area.

00:00 Jon Carlson This program is gonna be on Empowerment Family Therapy. What does that mean to you?

00:06 Diane Kjos Well, I think giving people the... the sense that they can make changes in their lives probably is... what it relates to empowerment. I think it also is somewhat of a cognitive thing is how you think about it, then gives you that boost or power to make the changes that are there... needed to be made.

00:25 Jon Carlson And recent research in therapy shows that instilling hope in clients is perhaps the most important thing, that a therapist can do.

00:26 Diane Kjos Uh...Huh...

00:50 Jon Carlson I'm not really sure what theoretical approach is this. It more or less fits the man who does this work. He does a lot of work with character building, that uses a lot of different modalities.

00:50 Diane Kjos Yeah.

00:55 Jon Carlson It's almost more of an integrative approach from my point of view.

00:56 Diane Kjos Uh...Huh... With the outcome being empowerment. Yes, yeah.

01:00 Jon Carlson Yeah. And the man is Frank Pittman. And we have Frank with us today. Let's bring Frank out and find out exactly what his approach is.

01:00 Diane Kjos What it is all about, okay.

01:06 Jon Carlson Frank, welcome.

Frank Pittman III Hi Jon. What a pleasure.

Diane Kjos Welcome.

Frank Pittman III Diane.

01:10 Jon Carlson You know, Frank your approach just doesn't seem to fit into any one category. I mean, it... it doesn't fit into the structural or the strategic or the communications. Help us.

01:25 Frank Pittman III Well, I never expected it to. Hahaha... I mean, I am trying to describe what I do.
